

Student

Community Engagement

At Sunrise RTC, we help our students create real life change by providing them opportunities to be involved in our local community and practice their therapeutic skills in as many contexts as possible. It is through this real life community involvement that our students are prepared to transition home or to college, successfully.

While all of our girls are involved in activities off-campus daily, 86% are engaged in other pursuits in our community, above and beyond our regular programming.

